COLORADO LAWYER TO SPEAK AT UM CHARTER DAY

MISSOULA---

A Boulder, Colo., lawyer will present the second in a series of lectures at the University of Montana on UM Charter Day Feb. 16. The talk is one of several being presented this year concerning modernization of legal forms to meet needs of our changing society.

The speaker is Raphael J. Moses, who also is a visiting lecturer at the University of Colorado. His lecture during Charter Month at the Missoula school is one of several being presented during the current academic year at the UM through a $2,000 grant from the Sperry and Hutchinson Foundation Lectureship Program.

Moses will speak on "Interstate Agreements and Our National Water Resources" at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall on the Missoula campus. A panel discussion will be presented at 3:15 p.m. on Feb. 16 in the MRH. Panelists include Dr. William D. Diehl, director of the UM business and economics research bureau, who will discuss "Agreements Between Urban Entities," and Robert E. Sullivan, UM law school dean, who will speak on "Compacts In Their Essence and Broad Application." A third panelist is to be named.

Both afternoon and evening discussions are open to the public. Attorneys, Chambers of Commerce members, and governmental officials in the state have been invited to the Feb. 16 programs.

Moses practiced law in Alamosa, Colo., from 1938-62. He received a bachelor's degree in 1935 and a law degree in 1937, both from the U of C.
